Flow Chart for Implementation of NIH Single IRB Policy for NCTN & NCORP

Is Site a Member of the NCI CIRB on 3/1/2019?

→ No →

Site Status Suspended
No enrollment of new patients to ANY trial is allowed, but treatment and follow-up data on previously enrolled patients will continue to be provided. A site may enroll new patients to trials once it becomes a member of the NCI CIRB

Yes

NCTN or NCORP Trial Activated On/After March 1, 2019

NCTN or NCORP Trial Activated Prior to March 1, 2019

- Trial never reviewed by NCI CIRB
- Trial reviewed by NCI CIRB & opened by site prior to 3/1/19
- Trial reviewed by NCI CIRB but opened by site on/after 3/1/19

Site must use the NCI CIRB as the IRB of Record

(all these trials will have been reviewed by the NCI CIRB)

Site must use Local IRB as IRB of Record

Site should continue to use the existing IRB of Record (Local or NCI CIRB)

Site must use the NCI CIRB as the IRB of Record

NIH) NATIONAL CANCER INSTITUTE